Choir Notes

During Holy Week (March 25 – April 1) the choir will not meet Wednesday, March 28, but there will be a rehearsal following the Maundy Thursday Seder Meal (March 29) to prepare for the Good Friday Service.

We welcome Amber Berry and Hunter Cannette, music students at Mississippi College, who will be singing with the Chancel Choir during March.

Craig Young Faculty Recital

Craig Young, Instructor of Saxophone and Director of Bands at Mississippi College, will be presenting a faculty recital in the Jean Pittman Williams Recital Hall at Mississippi College on Tuesday evening, March 27th at 7:30 PM. Dr. Young will be performing music of Astor Piazzolla, Jean Absil, Leonard Bernstein, JS Bach, James Sclater, and Joseph Haydn, among others, as well as performing the Mississippi Premiere of Jennifer Griffin's "Hannah" from her suite for solo saxophone entitled You Surpass Them All.

Craig will be joined on this occasion by Angela Willoughby (piano), Benjamin Williams (piano and bass), Tyler Kemp (keyboards), Adam Almeter (trombone), Paul Heindl (drums), Jennifer Sills (Baritone Saxophone), Ian Wilson (Alto Saxophone), and John Janikowski (Tenor Saxophone). The concert is free and open to everyone.

Christian Sympathy

We extend sympathy to the Wilson family in the death of Jennifer's 102 yr. old grandfather, C. C. Turner, of Longview, Texas. He died February 23rd and the funeral was held March 2nd in Longview. You may reach the Wilson's at 19 Lake Ave., Black Mountain, NC, 28711.

Thanksgiving

Sam Drummond recently shared this good news with us: Last day of outpatient chemo. After this, 2 years oversight. Booster chemo if needed, but cancer doc says "no relapse" for me. Getting out of the woods! Thanks for all your love and prayers. I love you all!
We rejoice with Sam and praise God for this good news.

Please join us for a Bridal Shower
