Northside Calls Courtney Stamey as Senior Pastor

On March 18, 2018, with an overwhelming vote of approval, Northside called Reverend Courtney Stamey as Senior Pastor. Prior to the vote, Courtney shared her faith journey and delivered her first sermon at Northside.

From our Senior Pastor, Courtney Stamey

Alleluia! Praise the Lord! The word has been absent from our lips for the season of Lent. We have been penitent and prayerful, even with the break of “Little Easters” each Sunday. But, it is during this time you call a pastor. Now what does that say about Northside? And what does it say about your new pastor?

If I situate the search process in the liturgical year, I find some revelations.

I began the search and call process during advent. I did not know where I was going, I only knew to follow the star. In the unknowing there was not fear, but excitement. During this time I reflected on my call, and wrote about my core convictions. The journey after the star was, as it always is, more about the inward journey than a physical one.

As the process continued, we moved through Advent, Christmas, Epiphany and Lent. My focus shifted from exploration to discernment- from feast to fasting. As fasting does, one is reminded of how dependent we are on Christ. As someone who likes control and plans, this is a difficult season for me. On Ash Wednesday we are reminded of our temperance and on Holy Saturday we are confronted by the grief of the disciples, unsure of what was next for them- living without the promise of Easter morn. This is the time I was called, the time in the church calendar between temperance and uncertainty. I could think of no better time. Times such as these call for trust and belief that Jesus is who he claims to be.

Dr. James Sclater and Dr. Sam Gore Included in the Walk of Honorees

The City of Clinton has chosen to honor Clintonians who have been recognized for achievements of excellence in their field at the local, state, or national level. Many have received prestigious awards.

These individuals either grew up in Clinton or spent time in Clinton during the span of their achievement of excellence in their area of expertise.

We are pleased to celebrate Dr. James Sclater as the recipient in excellence in performing art. Dr. Sclater served as interim choir director at Northside and continues to sing with the Chancel Choir and to play the clarinet for special selections. We are fortunate and blessed to have Dr. Sclater's continued presence among us.

Dr. Samuel Gore, father of Judy Gearhart, received the award in visual arts. He is an extraordinary Christian artist who has mentored many students for more than 6 decades.

On Thursday, March 22, 2018, the City of Clinton celebrated the outstanding achievements of thirteen individuals. A bronze plaque describing each honoree's story was unveiled. The plaques can be viewed on the "Walk of Honorees" located on the one-mile Quisenberry Library Trail at the Quisenberry Library.

I just wanted to express deep gratitude in the selection of your new pastor Courtney F. Stamey. She is my oldest daughter. I know that all of you will fall in love with her, just as I did when she was born. Take good care of my baby. I know she will certainly take care of all of you. With much love in Christ.
